

Post Hole Diggers, Hydraulic Drive

SAC35 Model (Skid Steer)

|                                | SAC35                                                                                                                        |                                                                  |
|--------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Gallons Per Minute Rating      | 10 - 25 GPM @ 1500 to 3500 PSI                                                                                               |                                                                  |
| Weight without Auger           | 365 lbs.                                                                                                                     |                                                                  |
| Auger Length                   | 48"                                                                                                                          |                                                                  |
| Auger Flighting Thickness      | 5/16"                                                                                                                        |                                                                  |
| Auger Pipe                     | 2 1/2" ID                                                                                                                    |                                                                  |
| Auger Teeth                    | Forged, Individually Replaceable40 Degree angle installed on flat side50 Degree angle installed on angled side       |                                                                  |
| Number of Teeth                | Standard Augers9" & 12" - 4 teeth15" - 5 teeth18" - 6 teeth24" - 8 teeth30" - 10 teeth36" - 12 teeth | Tree Augers24" - 9 teeth30" - 11 teeth36" - 13 teeth |
| Pilot                          | Cast Steel, 3 -Drill Points                                                                                                  |                                                                  |
| Auger Drive                    | Sprocket & #60 Roller Chain                                                                                                  |                                                                  |
| Hydraulic Motor Rating         | 18 GPM (Gallons Per Minute)                                                                                                  |                                                                  |
| Output Shaft                   | 2" Hex or 2 9/16" OD round                                                                                                   |                                                                  |
| Hitch                          | Skid Steer Mounting Plate                                                                                                    |                                                                  |
| Options and Accessories        |                                                                                                                              |                                                                  |
| Auger Sizes (Options)          | 9", 12", 15", 18", 24", 30" and 36"                                                                                          |                                                                  |
| Auger Extensions (Accessories) | 2" Hex extension:24" & 48" Extensions Available                                                                          | 2 9/16" OD round extension:24" & 48" Extensions Available    |

Specifications & Capacities

Post Hole Diggers, Hydraulic Drive

Designs, specifications, features and information are subject to change without notice.